DANISH LEVEL 1
COURSE OUTLINE

Prior Knowledge and Skills
This course is for learners with no knowledge or minimal knowledge of the language.

Proficiency Level
The content of this course corresponds approximately to level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Course Aim
At the end of the course learners should be able to perform basic tasks such as exchanging greetings, asking simple questions and writing basic sentences. They will also have gained some cultural understanding.

Course Details
No set textbook: Materials provided during the course.

- IML strongly recommends the use of dictionaries, which exist in a variety of printed, online and electronic formats. Tutors may recommend a dictionary at the commencement of the course.
- Each topic includes relevant social and cultural information.
- Additional tasks and resources will be provided in class.
- The IML library, located on level 1 in the Joyce Ackroyd Building, also has books, magazines, kits, CDs, DVDs and videos for loan to IML students.

Revision
Language is learned best with maximum contact and usage. Home exercises will be designed for revision and consolidation of each course segment. Revision is most effective when undertaken regularly in short sessions.

Assessment
Assessment is optional at the end of the full year course or equivalent. Listening and Speaking skills are assessed throughout the course. An examination to assess Reading and Writing competencies is held at the end of the course and a statement of attainment is then issued. A certificate of attendance is available upon request for students not undertaking assessment who have attended at least 75% of the course.

Further Study Options
Learners who wish to pursue further studies of this language can enrol in any of the IML Danish Level 2 Courses.
