

The Greek Orthodox Community Scholarships for Modern Greek Language

Closing Date for applications:	Friday 21 st January 2022
Course:	Modern Greek (any level) at IML
Award:	Cost of course and textbook
To apply:	Submit one page outlining how you meet the selection criteria to iml@uq.edu.au
Selection criteria:	(a) performance in an IML, UQ or other language course (b) strength of interest demonstrated in Modern Greek language and culture

The Scholarships were established in 2011 and are maintained by a gift from the Greek Orthodox Community of St George Brisbane.

The rules for the scholarships are as follows.

1. Purpose

The purpose of the scholarship is to encourage students of The University of Queensland or the Institute of Modern Languages (IML) to commence and/or continue their studies in the Modern Greek Language.

2. Award of the scholarships

Two scholarships will be awarded each year on the recommendation of the Director, IML as a representative of the selection committee.

3. Eligibility for award

An applicant is eligible for the award of a scholarship in a year, if -

- (a) the applicant is enrolled as a student of The University of Queensland at the time their application is made or is/has been enrolled as a student at the Institute of Modern Languages; and
- (b) an applicant is eligible for the award of a scholarship in a year, if the applicant submits an application for the scholarship to the Director, by the closing date for applications.

4. Selection criteria

The selection committee will rank the eligible applicants consecutively in order of merit, based on, for each applicant –

- (a) performance in an IML, The University of Queensland, or other language course; and
- (b) the strength of interest demonstrated by the applicant in Modern Greek language and culture.

5. Application process

Applicants will submit no more than one page outlining how they meet the selection criteria. Supporting documentation, for example, a copy of language course assessment results may be attached.

6. Conditions for scholarship

- (a) The recipients will hold the scholarships for a year, subject to their continuing enrolment in an IML Modern Greek Language course.
- (b) If a recipient fails to complete the year's study for which the scholarship was awarded, the recipient must repay the scholarship amount awarded or part thereof as determined by the selection committee at its discretion.
- (c) Scholarships must be used in the next academic year following the date the scholarship awarded and cannot be deferred. If a scholarship is unable to be used by the recipient, the recipient gives up its rights in relation to the scholarship and the scholarship will be awarded again.

Please contact IML on (07) 3346 8200 if you have any queries.

Sincerely,

Student Services, IML